

Cumann Le Seandacht Átha Cliath

The Old Dublin Society

Spring 2016 Newsletter

###

Below are details of our Spring 2016 Programme to which we extend an invitation to the members of your Society – admission to all lectures, which conclude by 8 p.m., is free of charge.

###

SPRING 2016 PROGRAMME

in

Dublin City Library & Archive Conference Room, 138 – 144 Pearse Street, Dublin 2, at 6 p.m. – please note the starting time. All welcome – admission free.

Wednesday February 10th: ‘South Circular Road on the eve of World War 1’ - Catherine Scuffil*.

Wednesday February 24th: ‘Rathborne Tallow Chandlers’ - Bernard Neary*.

Wednesday March 9th: Members’ Night.

Wednesday March 23rd: ‘Mary (Molly) Adrien, Cumann na mBan Volunteer 1916’ - Frank Whearity.

Saturday April 2nd: Morning Seminar, 10.00 am – 1.00 pm: ‘Remembering 1916’. Members will speak on their (family) links to the Easter Rising.

Wednesday April 13th: ‘1916: Inside the GPO’ - Ken Finlay.

Wednesday April 27th: ‘Lives, Letters, Liberty: Dublin’s General Post Office’ - Stephen Ferguson.

* Guest Speaker

###

Autumn/Winter 2015 Dublin Historical Record

Articles featured in "The Dublin Historical Record – Autumn/Winter 2015", Editor Séamas Ó Maitiú, published by the Old Dublin Society, include -

From the Editor- Goodbye to Clerys.

Notes on the Contributors.

Around the Town.

The Yellow Lion Inn – one building, 260 years of Irish history – by Audrey Mac Cready.

The Emergency and Growth of Gaelic Merchants and Traders in Dublin 1660 to 1911 - by Raymond M. Keogh.

The Mansion House Celebrates 300 Years.

War in Winter – The 1641 Rising in the Balbriggan area - by Maighréd Ní Mhurchadha.

The People Called Methodist – by Dudley Levistone Cooney.

Botany in print: books and their readers in eighteenth century Dublin – by Máire Kennedy.

Muintir Neachtain, an Nua-aoiseach agus Dúchas Gaelach Bhaile Átha Cliath – le Liam Mac Mathúna. .

2016 – To Members of the Old Dublin Society.

Dublin 1160 – 1200. Part Two - by Noel E. French.

Spring 2016 Programme.

Memorials of Whitechurch graveyard and church - by Joe Walsh.

A Dublin Day: Saturday 28 December 1918 – by James Scannell.

Society News.

Obituary.

Book Reviews.

Copies of the Autumn/Winter 2015 issue of the Dublin Historical Record can be obtained at the post paid price of €14.50 from The Old Dublin Society (DHR), 19 Hazelwood, Shankill, Dublin D18 ND 79.

###

The Society has a limited number of back issues of the Dublin Historical Record from 1980 to 2010, available at the price of €5 per year (two issues yearly) plus postage. These can be purchased / ordered at meetings of the Society or ordered from the ODS (Back Issues) 19 Hazelwood, Shankill D18 ND 79, or from Hon. Membership Secretary, 5 Dollymount Ave., Clontarf, Dublin D03 Y3 04.

###

James Scannell

Hon. PRO

The Old Dublin Society.

The Old Dublin Society, Founded 1934, Incorporated 1954. Registered Office: 1 – 2 Marino Mart, Fairview, Dublin 3.

Company No. 15059. CHY No. 5327. Registered in Ireland.